Systems Coaching

Based on ORSC™, System Coaching helps teams, groups and organizations address challenging situations in a way that builds sustainable and resilient teams, focused on the common objective and capable of finding their own solutions by tapping into the Relationship Systems Intelligence™.

Beyond Emotional Intelligence (relationship with self) and Social Intelligence (relationship with others) is the realm of Relationship Systems Intelligence™ (one's focus shifts to the relationship with the group, team or system).

ORSC™ is based on:

- Systems Theory
- Family System Therapy
- Process Work
- Taoism
- Quantum Physics
- Co-Active Coaching
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
